- + PRAYER OF CONFESSION:
Have mercy on us, O God, as we confess our sin. You call us to be pilgrims, to follow You on a journey of faith. We confess that we would find it easier to follow when not so much is at stake. You lead us into unfamiliar places, and ask that we trust Your will. You have given us Your light and truth, to guide us through confusion, yet we have relied on human wisdom and have lost our way. Forgive our hesitant steps toward your promise. By Word and Spirit, renew us as children of the kingdom, that we may live in the confidence and joy of Jesus Christ: for His sake, Amen.

Our greeter today is Pat Hunter.

Our prayer family for this week is Cathy and David MacMillan.

We welcome our new minister this morning, Lee Thomas, and his family, as he begins his ministry with us at Olivet.

The Sunday School Department is participating in Operation Christmas Child by filling shoe boxes for needy children. Please include at least $7.00 for postage. Sunday, November 11, 2012, is the deadline. For more information see Wilma Balsley.

On Sunday, November 11, 2012, at 11:00 a.m. we will officially install Lee Thomas as our new minister. This will be followed by a church-wide covered dish luncheon to welcome Lee and his family. Please bring extra food if possible. We will be feeding Lee, his family and Presbyterian dignitaries that have been invited which could be as many as twenty-five extra people.

There will be a community Thanksgiving Service at Olivet on Wednesday, November 21, 2012, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Luke Smith from Linden Heights Baptist Church will be preaching.

The Women will be collecting Food Baskets for the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank for Thanksgiving. There will be a table in the vestibule for your donations and they are due by Sunday, November 18, 2012. Some of the most needed items are cereals, peanut butter, canned meats, fruits and vegetables, boxed Mac & Cheese, spaghetti sauce, pastas and rice. (No glass, please).
